Minutes of the General Meeting
Galway, 28 June 2007

President Laura Izarra called the Fifth General Meeting of the Society for Irish Latin American Studies to order at 1:45pm. A quorum was established as existing and it was noted that there were eleven voting Members.

PRESENT

BUSINESS

1. President's Report

The President thanked the Executive Committee members for their support, and remarked the Society's growth.

2. Annual Report of the Executive Committee

Report attached. Edmundo Murray spoke about the SILAS's visibility and how the organisation has improved in the last year. He also welcomed the increase in funding that SILAS has been receiving.

3. Treasurer's and Auditor's Reports

Reports attached. Finance was an issue and problems in getting Members to pay their membership fees is proving difficult, resulting in the organisation not having the funds it should have at its disposal. Edmundo Murray reported that there are some chronic cases of unpaid fees which he is attempting to solve individually. He also stated that we need to convince those in their second and third year of membership to renew it again. Edmundo pointed out that it is up to SILAS Executive Committee to find resolutions to these problem, but suggestions and ideas from all other Members are warmly welcomed.

MOTION: To identify members with fees due and to send them a letter.

MOVED: Andrés Romera, CARRIED

4. Funding

Claire Healy suggested that one Member should be solely responsible for trying to source funding for the organisation, co-ordinating with other people for ideas and suggestions. While a network is needed, one person should have overall responsibility.

MOTION: To appoint a Member responsible for fund-raising.

MOVED: Claire Healy, CARRIED

5. Administration

Edmundo Murray announced that for personal reasons, he will not be able to offer the same level of commitment to the organisation in the future. While his plans will be two years down the road, Edmundo said he was looking for further support from Members in many of the SILAS tasks. Laura Izarra spoke about Edmundo's contribution to the organisation, thanking him profusely and pointing out that finding assistance is now a priority as Edmundo will have to train them. Claire Healy said that she felt Edmundo does the work of three persons and so the work that he does needs to be split up into more jobs for more people. However, she felt that dealing with enquiries from people could be an issue, as Edmundo normally looks after this and she did not know who else could do this. Edmundo agreed to circulate a description of his work done for SILAS so candidates to replace him can be identified.

Andrés Romera suggested that the various tasks should be rotated amongst the members. He also offered his help with administrative work from Waterford, where he lives, as he has both the training and the experience. The proposal was enthusiastically accepted by Members.

MOTIONS: To appoint Andrés Romera as administration-treasury officer and to open a SILAS account in an Irish-based bank. To search delegation for further delegation of Edmundo Murray's responsibilities before 2009.

MOVED: Laura Izarra, Claire Healy, CARRIED

6. Publications

Members discussed the positive performance of the organisation's website and the journal Irish Migration Studies in Latin America (IMSLA). Juan Pablo Alvarez offered his help with online publishing of the SILAS website and IMSLA.

Regarding the publishing of IMSLA, Nancy Connolly suggested that she could contact the editors of the Irish Studies Review based in Bath, England, to see if they could assist SILAS with publishing. Additionally, Laura Izarra proposed that to get new Members, one or two free topics/articles may be offered on the website, and the rest as needing Member's access. Edmundo Murray pointed out that IMSLA is an open-access journal by its very nature, but selected communications can be inserted with every issue to acquire new Members and to attract donations.

MOTIONS: To appoint Juan Pablo Alvarez as webmaster. To explore the possibility of obtaining editorial and publishing support for SILAS publications.

MOVED: Nancy Connolly, Claire Healy, CARRIED

7. Publicity and Communications

Sharon Newman suggested that a Publicity & Communications Committee (PCC) be established to manage SILAS relations with the media, journalists, Members and the general public. Ongoing press releases will be produced by the PCC, as well as advertising and direct communications with other target segments, particularly SILAS Members and friends, and email lists. Press releases should be issued regularly to familiarise more newspapers and news groups with the organisation. Plans for the PCC also include the production of a standard brochure, which initially will serve to promote SILAS in Westmeath and the Irish midlands, as it will be placed in schools, tourist offices, heritage centres, and other institutions.

Sharon also mentioned that The Westmeath Examiner (Mullingar) is celebrating its 125th anniversary in September 2007, an event in which SILAS can be present. The WE had sent newspapers to South America from its inception. Plans are already being discussed to have an article on the connections in the issue. Edmundo Murray suggested obtaining a letter from the editor of The Southern Cross, and contributions or extracts from immigrants and their descendants, and pieces that have featured about the newspaper in Argentine papers.

MOTION: To establish the Publicity & Communications Committee (PCC), with Sharon Newman as Chair and Nancy Connolly, Juan Pablo Alvarez, Eugenia Cruset and Derrick Marcus as its members. To produce a SILAS brochure, and to search synergies with The Westmeath Examiner and other newspapers.

MOVED: Sharon Newman, CARRIED

8. Adjournment 14.30

Society for Irish Latin American Studies
Annual General Meeting 2007
Annual Report of the Executive Committee

1. MEMBERSHIP

This past year has been an important one for SILAS. We are happy to report a continued increase of 28 per cent in membership, with 30 new Members who joined in this period (1 May 2006 thru 30 April 2007). So far, the Society has 108 Members (30 April 2007), including ninety-one Senior Members, eleven Student Members and six Honorary Members.

Chart 1. SILAS Membership 2003-2007 (to 30 April 2007)

Chart 2. SILAS Membership by Type of Members

The concentration of Members in a few countries (Ireland, Argentina, UK and US) continues to be significant, though the relative importance of the US and UK have increased compared to 2006.

Table 1. Members by Country of Residence

SILAS Members by Country

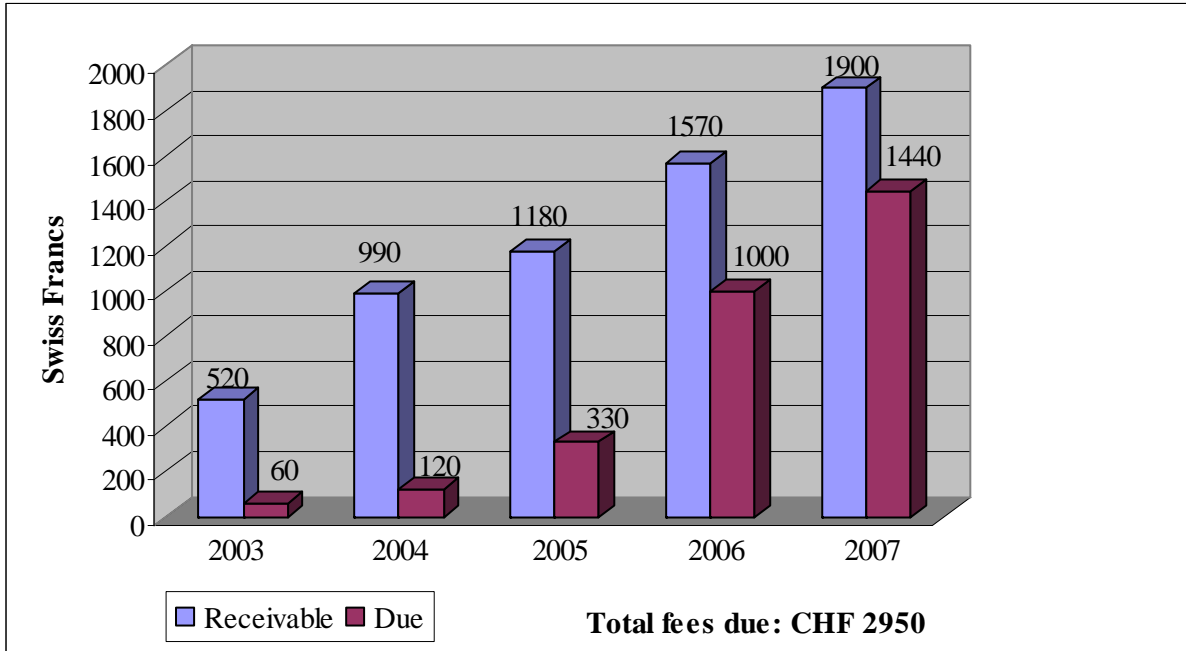

Argentina	17	16%
Australia	1	1%
Brazil	3	3%
Canada	1	1%
Finland	1	1%
France	1	1%
Hungary	1	1%
Ireland	44	41%
Mexico	2	2%
Spain	1	1%
Switzerland	4	4%
UK	17	16%
US	15	14%
Total	108	100%

(to 30 April 2007)

The unpaid fees continue to be a major problem for SILAS revenue. The percentage of unpaid to total fees increased to 76 per cent in 2007 ( $\text{CHF } 1440 / \text{CHF } 1900 = 0.76$ ), from 63 per cent in 2006 and 30 per cent in 2005.

Chart 3. Unpaid Fees (to 30 April 2007)

Total fees due are owed by 46 Members (i.e., 42 per cent of Membership, not including the Honorary Members).

Chart 4. Number of Members with Fees Due (to 30 April 2007)

2. TREASURY

Following the Society's change of name, the account holder of the bank account with UBS in Geneva has been changed from "Irish Argentine Historical Society" to "Society for Irish Latin American Studies". The account is denominated in Swiss Francs.

Cheque cashing expenses continue to impact in SILAS revenue. Most fees and donation payments are settled through personal cheques. A Visa/MasterCard service establishment has been opened in Switzerland, but very few Members use this option.

3. PUBLICATIONS

SILAS's website (www.irlandeses.org) is available since 2003. From January 2005 the website includes a serial publication, Irish Migration Studies in Latin America (IMSLA), which is now being published every four months (previously every quarter). This publication is registered under ISSN 1661-6065 and is given volume and issue numbers. Also, as in the case of an increasing number of academic journals, a paginated version is published in the website so readers who need to cite articles are provided the complete reference. With a view to conceptually separating SILAS website and the publication, since April 2007 IMSLA is one of the options in the website's main menu.

Message from Laura Izarra, SILAS President

Bemvindol! Bienvenido! Fáilte romhath!

Welcome to the SILAS website. The Society for Irish Latin American Studies (SILAS) is internationally the largest association of scholars, students and those interested in relations between Ireland and Latin America. We work in all areas of the humanities and we support the acquisition and analysis of knowledge on past, present and future relations between Ireland and Latin America. These pages are dedicated to providing information and services to SILAS Members and friends, and raising critical debates on contemporary issues concerning Irish Latin American identities and relationships.

If you are not already a Member of the Society, I encourage you to join now. Membership offers a number of benefits. These include the open-access journal Irish Migration Studies in Latin America published by SILAS, as well as exclusive access to SILAS databases, members newsletter, and support for our publications, grants and research programmes, conferences, archiving projects and manuscript collections. Membership also makes you eligible for candidacy to the Executive Committee or one of our other committees and working groups.

If you have any questions concerning the Society and its activities, send us a message at contact@irlandeses.org.

Sincerely,

Laura Izarra, President

IMSLA main page (table of contents, Vol 5, N° 1):

The screenshot shows the IMSLA main page with a table of contents for Volume 5, Number 1 (March 2007). The page is organized into four columns: 'The Homeland', 'The Journey', 'Settlement', and 'Faces and Places'. The 'Faces and Places' column features a photograph of Irish President Mary McAleese during her visit to Mexico in 1999. The table of contents lists various articles and resources, including 'Ireland and Mexico' by Séamus Ó Fógartaigh, 'Irish Mexican, Latino Irlandés: Fountains of Literary Invention' by David Vela, and 'Contemporary Irish Mexican Gatherings and Forays in California: The Irish Mexican Association (IMA), 1994-2007' by Patrick Goggins. The page also includes a 'Home' link, 'Print table of contents', and 'Print publication (4.5 Mb)' options.

Both the website and IMSLA continue to be effective communication means and they are major information source about SILAS activity. However, during problematical technical situations the dependence on one medium may be uncertain. For instance, between 15 and 26 April 2007, access to www.irlandeses.org was denied owing to an administrative fault of the domain registrar, though access through other SILAS domains was available (see below).

Chart 5. Website Visits 2003-2007 (to 30 April 2007)

Monthly visits increased from a few dozens in the first publications of 2003 to 15,716 in April 2007. In November 2004 a new page design was implemented, which caused a loss of visits from certain Internet browsers (eg., Netscape). A technical solution was developed for this problem in late 2005. On 6 May 2006, the hosting service provider was changed from Lycos Europe (Paris) to Infomaniak in Geneva. From 15 to 26 April 2007, access to the main domain name (www.irlandeses.net) was not available due to an administrative error of the domain registrar, Lycos Europe, who cancelled the domain name with the Public Interest Registry (the international organisation that manages the .ORG top-level domain name and maintains the database of all .ORG Internet addresses).

Daily visits reached a record of 1,015 on 21 March 2007, this being related to the special edition on Ireland and Mexico (Vol. 5, N° 1 - March 2007).

Another key indicator is the number of downloaded pdf files (comparable to readership in a printed publication). In the twelve-months period from May 2006 to April 2007, there were 28,916 pdf files downloaded from the website, including 28,432 IMSLA issues (complete issues, not articles). The most successful IMSLA issue to date was the special one dedicated to Ireland and Brazil (July 2006, Vol. 4, N° 3), which was downloaded 10,319 times since its launching.

Table 2. Downloaded IMSLA issues (pdf files)

We are thankful to the growing number of contributors and to Members and friends who submit primary sources for publication and who provide constant feedback. Once again, Claire Healy, Associate Editor, and Ignacio Adrogué, IT specialist, have been vital members of the publishing and technical teams.

4. GRANTS PROGRAMME

The Grants Programme of the Society for Irish Latin American Studies (SILAS) was introduced in March 2004 to support innovative and significant research in the different aspects of migrations between Ireland and Latin America. The grants programme name is Irish Latin American Research Fund.

Grants up to 1,000 Euros are awarded to exceptionally promising students, faculty members or independent scholars to help support their research and writing leading to the publication or other types of communication of their projects. Awards are selected on the basis of a well-developed research plan that promises to make a significant contribution to a particular area of study about the Irish and Latin America. Typically, grants funds are used to pay for travel expenses to distant archives.

Every year three prestigious scholars seat on the selection committee to assess the research proposals and award grants to the best projects. The Irish Latin American Research Fund is open to faculty, advanced university students, and independent scholars throughout the world. Funding for the grants programme is obtained from individuals and private sources, namely from SILAS members and friends.

2004-2005: Kevin Whelan (University of Notre-Dame), Hilda Sabato (University of Buenos Aires), Oliver Marshall (University of Oxford).

Finally, these grants were possible thanks to the generosity of the following SILAS Members and friends:

Jim Geoghegan Hugh Fitzgerald Ryan David Barnwell Peter Mulvany Herman and Maria Ana Beuk Tom Ganly Cathal McGoey Edmundo Murray Emer Singleton Harry Dunleavy Bill Mulligan The MacGeoghegan Family Society

We couldn't have implemented the programme without their help, and we hope to greatly increase this list in the current academic year.

5. MANUSCRIPTS AND RARE BOOKS COLLECTION

The Manuscripts and Rare Books Collection (MRBC) was created in May 2005 to allow Members and others to contribute to the preservation of Irish heritage and aid historical research on relations between Ireland and Latin America.

SILAS has signed a twenty-five years repository contract with the Max von Buch Library of Universidad de San Andrés (Buenos Aires). This library provides optimal security and technical conditions for documents and rare books belonging to SILAS, its Members and friends. The library staff is trained to preserve records using the latest available technology. Furthermore, the Max von Buch Library has been collecting a number of invaluable holdings of the British and Irish communities in Argentina, including among others the most complete collection of the Standard newspaper in existence in a public library (1861-1959), the Cecilia Grierson Papers (1859-1934), and the records of 'The Strangers Club' of Buenos Aires (1841-1981). To this, SILAS added the Anastasia Joyce Papers (1844-1881) donated by Mary Anglim, including the letters to Martin Murphy of Co. Wexford. The collection has been received in Buenos Aires, was classified and catalogued by the staff library and is available to researchers.

6. CONFERENCES

Since its inception in 2003, the Society has organised panels about Ireland-Latin America relations in difference conferences. In this way, panels have been arranged in ACIS conference in Liverpool 2004, CAIS conference in Maynooth 2005, and the Irish Latinoamericanists conference in Coleraine 2006.

Since 2006, Executive Committee members Claire Healy and Oliver Marshall have been working on the organisation of the first SILAS conference, which will be held on 27-30 June 2007 at the National University of Ireland (Galway) in conjunction with the Fifth Galway Conference on Colonialism. The call for papers have attracted numerous proposals, and twenty-eight papers will be presented arranged in eight panels. The venue will be the Moore Institute Seminar Room at NUI Galway. As a result of the contacts made by Claire Healy, a special grant of Euro 7,000 has been awarded by the Irish Department of Foreign Affairs (Cultural Division) as a contribution to the conference's promotion, and travel expenses of Latin American experts, as well as the publication of the conference proceedings.

The Second Symposium of Irish Studies is being organized by SILAS with the aim to continue the networking started by the Brazilian Association of Irish Studies (ABEI) at the First Symposium in São Paulo, Brazil, in 2006. The Symposium will be held on 5-7 September 2007 at Manzana de las Luces, Perú 272, Buenos Aires, and has the support of the Embassy of Ireland in Argentina and Culture Ireland. It is being co-organized with the Brazilian Association of Irish Studies (ABEI), the National University of La Pampa and the National University of San Martín - IDAES (Instituto de Altos Estudios Sociales), the Instituto Histórico de la Ciudad de Buenos Aires, Academia de Historia de la Ciudad de Buenos Aires, Ministerio "Puertas del Bicentenario" and The Southern Cross. Its 2007 theme "Ireland and Latin America: Towards New Perspectives" opens an interdisciplinary discussion on various sub-themes of research, such as Irish-Latin American relations, historiographic and critical trends in migration studies, literature, theatre, cinema, representations of Ireland in the Latin American press and of Latin America in the Irish press.
